

SYNOD WILL PASS ON IRWIN APPEAL

Lawton Pastor Asks Review of Decision Made by El Reno Presbytery

HOLDEN SPEAKS HERE

Annual Session to Open Today; Many Problems for Settlement

200 U. S. Railroad Guards To Be Discharged Soon

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 9.—Orders for the discharge of 200 deputy United States marshals who have been guarding railroad shops in Missouri since the beginning of the shippers' strike were received today by United States marshal Frank Hall from Attorney-General Daugherty. Marshal Hall has asked to be allowed to retain 35 of the deputies in strike districts.

News of Sapulpa

MURDERER SLEW HICKS FOR CASH

Belived That Slayer Knew Where Victim Kept His Money

SAPULPA, Ok., Oct. 9.—The coroner's inquest this morning on the murder of Andrew Hicks Saturday night on the Colony road was ended after a consultation by the officials when it was decided that enough evidence had been gathered.

At present there have been three arrests made in the case, John Wells and H. M. Wells who were said to have been in the company of Hicks at the time of the shooting and whom said to have had considerable money when arrested.

Marks on the face of the dead man showed that either at the time of the killing or before Hicks had been in a fight, according to officials. Officers report that the day had been spent at Cowboy Long's place, a short distance out of town, where Hicks and his companions had been drinking and gambling according to statements.

The conclusion was drawn that Hicks might have won money from the murderer as one of his pockets was turned, indicating that the supposed hijacker knew which pocket to search.

Funeral services for the murdered man were held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and interment was made in the Sapulpa cemetery.

A meeting was held at the chamber of commerce rooms this afternoon to make plans for the community barbecue which is to be put on here. It was stated today by the secretary, V. P. Wilson, that concessions for the affair will be let only to local people this year.

Mr. Holden is the guest of the Tulsa University while here.

The synodical home mission committee, headed by Rev. G. W. Kerr, will hold a special conference in regard to its work with national and district representatives of the mission board, among them Dr. A. H. Montgomery, secretary of the home mission board for the southwest, and with headquarters in St. Louis, at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church. In the conference will be Rev. Ralph J. Lamb of this city, home mission superintendent for western and central Oklahoma, Rev. S. L. Schaub of Muskogee, home mission superintendent for the remainder of the state, and synodical home mission committee members, Rev. C. C. Beach of Chickasha, Rev. G. E. Eases of Hobart, Rev. G. L. Edwards of Enid, Rev. H. C. Shifflet of McAlester, Rev. J. C. Linton of Miami, and Rev. E. H. Surles of Ponca City.

Gives Illustrated Talk.

An illustrated sermon on lecturing, advertising and residents of Indiana, Terrell and Oklahoma for 100 years will be given by Reverend Lamb in the Sunday school section of the church auditorium. The pictures to be thrown on the screen were taken by Reverend Lamb during his many years' residence in this section and by other old timers. A supper will be served.

The Oklahoma synod will be called to order at 7:30 o'clock in the evening in the College Hill Presbyterian church by the moderator, Rev. W. A. Reach of Chickasha, who will give his annual address. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

Wednesday sessions will be devoted to the work of the synod. In the evening, at a public meeting in the University of Tulsa auditorium, Reverend Hayes of Indiana, high priest of the Presbyterian church in this country, will give an address. The Tulsa Presbyterians, composed of ministers and elders from eight counties surrounding Tulsa, will hold its annual meeting at hours not conflicting with synodical assemblies and commencing at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. The convention will close Thursday.

POLICE MAKE LIQUOR HAUL

While Waiting in Hiding for Owners County Officials Appear.

Another big liquor haul was made by the city police at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon when Chief of Police Bea Moran and C. L. Collier, head of the car recovery department, raided a garage on East 23rd street between Utica and Victoria, and unearthed a "plant" containing 62 quarts of bonded whisky and 20 gallons of alcohol. The selection of liquor would probably be valued by "booze peddlers" at over $100.

Following the capture of the "boozes," the officers concealed themselves near the garage and awaited the return of the owners who was reported to have sold others who had not let that woman get away with stuff like that. Are you going to let her steal your husband?"

CLARA STILL IS BLAMED

Despite Her Protestations of Innocence, Club Holds to Story.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9.—Despite the protestations of Mrs. Clara Phillips that she did not strike the blow that killed Mrs. Alberta Meadows, victim of the so-called "hammer murder" Mrs. Peggy Caffey, who was present at the time of the murder, asserted today that "Clara Phillips alone and unaided committed the crime."

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

GUTHRIE OPENS FALL CONSISTORY

Prominent Tulsa Masons and Large Class Take Part in Reunion

Special to The World.

GUTHRIE, Ok., Oct. 9.—The annual fall reunion of Oklahoma consistory, Scottish rite Masonry, opened this afternoon under most favorable circumstances. More than 1,000 candidates were registered when the fourth degree was conferred and other candidates are expected tomorrow. In the class were 31 Masons from Tulsa, one of the largest classes from Tulsa in recent years.

Frank Craig, deputy for the supreme council of the thirty-third degree in Oklahoma, will arrive to-day and preside over the special entertainment which has been arranged for the reunion which will be concluded with the conferring of the thirty-second degree on Thursday afternoon.

The candidates and visiting members will also inspect the new $3,000,000 Masonic temple now being completed here.

In the class from Tulsa is Bishop Edward L. St. John, Methodist bishop of Oklahoma, and the following Tulsa Masons: Herbert C. Preston, Prentiss Hillers, Albert E. Pusser, George B. Pyeatt, George W. Shaffer, Rodney G. Smith, Fred W. Steiner, Charles F. Stott, James H. Frazer, Robert J. Vanderford, George L. Voight, George W. Webster, Luther H. White, Tell T. White, W. F. Wilcox, C. J. Williams, Wesley H. Blane, Elmer C. John, John G. Carr, Walter E. Clasing, Paul F. Cole, Lawrence E. Cossell, W. Daubenspeck, Frank J. Downey, Frank S. Dugay, Charles F. Farnan, George H. Howard, David C. Morrison, Edwin L. Neely and John B. Peacock.

Among the active Scottish rite workers attending the reunion are Rev. John R. Abernathy, Elva C. Barrows, A. A. Anderson, A. H. Hall, Tom Bonnell and others.

At present there have been three arrests made in the case, John Wells and H. M. Wells who were said to have been in the company of Hicks at the time of the shooting and whom said to have had considerable money when arrested.

Marks on the face of the dead man showed that either at the time of the killing or before Hicks had been in a fight, according to officials. Officers report that the day had been spent at Cowboy Long's place, a short distance out of town, where Hicks and his companions had been drinking and gambling according to statements.

The conclusion was drawn that Hicks might have won money from the murderer as one of his pockets was turned, indicating that the supposed hijacker knew which pocket to search.

Funeral services for the murdered man were held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and interment was made in the Sapulpa cemetery.

A meeting was held at the chamber of commerce rooms this afternoon to make plans for the community barbecue which is to be put on here. It was stated today by the secretary, V. P. Wilson, that concessions for the affair will be let only to local people this year.

Mr. Holden is the guest of the Tulsa University while here.

The synodical home mission committee, headed by Rev. G. W. Kerr, will hold a special conference in regard to its work with national and district representatives of the mission board, among them Dr. A. H. Montgomery, secretary of the home mission board for the southwest, and with headquarters in St. Louis, at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church. In the conference will be Rev. Ralph J. Lamb of this city, home mission superintendent for western and central Oklahoma, Rev. S. L. Schaub of Muskogee, home mission superintendent for the remainder of the state, and synodical home mission committee members, Rev. C. C. Beach of Chickasha, Rev. G. E. Eases of Hobart, Rev. G. L. Edwards of Enid, Rev. H. C. Shifflet of McAlester, Rev. J. C. Linton of Miami, and Rev. E. H. Surles of Ponca City.

Gives Illustrated Talk.

An illustrated sermon on lecturing, advertising and residents of Indiana, Terrell and Oklahoma for 100 years will be given by Reverend Lamb in the Sunday school section of the church auditorium. The pictures to be thrown on the screen were taken by Reverend Lamb during his many years' residence in this section and by other old timers. A supper will be served.

The Tulsa Presbyterians, composed of ministers and elders from eight counties surrounding Tulsa, will hold its annual meeting at hours not conflicting with synodical assemblies and commencing at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. The convention will close Thursday.

POLICE MAKE LIQUOR HAUL

While Waiting in Hiding for Owners County Officials Appear.

Another big liquor haul was made by the city police at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon when Chief of Police Bea Moran and C. L. Collier, head of the car recovery department, raided a garage on East 23rd street between Utica and Victoria, and unearthed a "plant" containing 62 quarts of bonded whisky and 20 gallons of alcohol. The selection of liquor would probably be valued by "booze peddlers" at over $100.

Following the capture of the "boozes," the officers concealed themselves near the garage and awaited the return of the owners who was reported to have sold others who had not let that woman get away with stuff like that. Are you going to let her steal your husband?"

CLARA STILL IS BLAMED

Despite Her Protestations of Innocence, Club Holds to Story.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9.—Despite the protestations of Mrs. Clara Phillips that she did not strike the blow that killed Mrs. Alberta Meadows, victim of the so-called "hammer murder" Mrs. Peggy Caffey, who was present at the time of the murder, asserted today that "Clara Phillips alone and unaided committed the crime."

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying:

"I never struck the blow that killed Alberta Meadows. Neither did I strike the first blow. It was—"

At the crucial point in the conversation, Mrs. Phillips closed her lips and refused to talk further. She reported to have told others who was responsible for the killing and social session.

Mrs. Phillips was quoted here today as saying: